ORDER

AND NOW, this 27th day of January, 2021, upon consideration of the report (Doc. 14) of Magistrate Judge Gerald B. Cohn, recommending that the court vacate the decision of the administrative law judge denying plaintiff Jessica Torres' claim for supplemental security income and disability insurance benefits, and the court noting that the Commissioner of Social Security has not objected to the report, see FED. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(2), and noting further that failure of a party to timely object to a magistrate judge's conclusions "may result in forfeiture of de novo review at the district court level," Nara v. Frank, 488 F.3d 187, 194 (3d Cir. 2007) (citing Henderson v. Carlson, 812 F.2d 874, 878-79 (3d Cir. 1987)), but that, as a matter of good practice, a district court should afford "reasoned consideration" to the uncontested portions of the report, E.E.O.C. v. City of Long Branch, 866 F.3d 93, 100 (3d Cir. 2017) (quoting Henderson, 812 F.2d at 879), in order to "satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record," FED. R. Civ. P. 72(b), advisory committee notes, and, following an independent review of the record, the court being in agreement with Judge Cohn's analysis, and concluding that there is no clear error on the face of the record, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. The report (Doc. 14) of Magistrate Judge Cohn is ADOPTED.
2. The Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in favor of Torres and against the Commissioner as set forth in the following paragraph.
3. The Commissioner's decision is VACATED and this matter is REMANDED to the Commissioner with instructions to conduct a new administrative hearing, develop the record fully, and evaluate the evidence appropriately in accordance with this order and the report (Doc. 15) of Magistrate Judge Cohn.
4. The Clerk of Court shall thereafter CLOSE this case.
